SIXTEEN CANDIDATES INITIATED

Shriners Had Big Time in Madisonville Tuesday.

FUN BEGAN WITH ARRIVAL OF EARLINGTON SHRINERS.

Sixteen candidates were initiated into the Mystic Order of the Shrine Tuesday afternoon at the Masonic Temple, Madisonville, and the meeting was one of the most successful held since the Shrine was located there. Beginning with the arrival of the Earlington Shriners the fun and merriment began and did not cease until late at night.

Over one hundred candidates and members from other points in the states were present. In point of attendance, initiation, entertainment and good time it is said was never surpassed.

All the Shriners assembled at the 4:30 southbound passenger train and a parade was formed, headed by the Earlington band. They paraded around the courthouse amidst the cry of "Hold on to the rope." The candidates were then taken to the never-known-what-happens-in-it room where they were initiated into this great order.

At 7:30 the announcement was made the "dinner is ready" and the camel men sat down to a fine banquet. Jas. R. Rash, of this city, was toastmaster. Mayor D. W. Gatlin delivered an address of welcome, which was responded to by Cicero M. Barnett, of Hartford. Jas. K. Waller, of Henderson, displayed his knowledge of the feminine sex, in his well handled subject entitled "Ladies." James W. Clay, of Henderson, responded for the new class.

Following the banquet and the speeches the Shriners were entertained by juvenile vaudeville artists from Evansville. Approval of the entertainment was shown by the fact that they were compelled to answer numerous encores.

The following candidates were initiated into the order: Jas. W. Clay, Henderson; G. Edwin Cunniff, Greenville; W. R. Cowie, Earlington; Robert Cunniff, Central City; Andy O. Davis, Paducah; John O. Gaddy, Fulton; Andrew M. Howell, Earlington; Allen J. Morgenson, Fulton; George B. McManis, Calhoun; Harry A. Rice, Sturgis; Jas. H. Small, Central City; W. A. Sutherland, Owensboro; Ed C. Walker, Henderson; Earl W. Weather, Elkton; Joe M. Williams and Roy S. Wilson, Madisonville.

Who will get the $30 Cabinet?

SCHOOL TEACHER OBJECTS TO SWEARING

Miss Sutton Loses Position on Account of Profanity in School.

Dixie, Ky., Oct. 26.—Profanity on the part of small children has stirred up a peck of trouble at Tunnel Hill, three miles from Dixie, on the Madisonville road. Some time ago, Miss Pearl Sutton, the teacher, announced to her pupils that she would tolerate no profanity on the school grounds. A few days ago a small boy, named Herron, it is said, was accused by Miss Sutton of swearing. He was punished for the offence, and his little sister, the teacher claims, undertook to deal in similar language to spite Miss Sutton.

Miss Sutton told the child that she would punish her next day. The parents of the child appealed to the board of trustees, and the teacher was forthwith notified that if she thrashed the child she would so at the risk of losing her position.

Miss Sutton immediately resigned. When she demanded the money that was due her the board of trustees refused to pay her, saying she had forfeited her salary by quitting her position. She replied that if she were not permitted to settle matters of discipline in the school room she would not teach.

County Superintendent R. L. Cinnamon informed Miss Sutton that she was legally entitled to pay for all the work she had done.

Time Not Ripe.

Time is not ripe for the recognition of the Republican Government of Portugal by the United States, it was stated by State Department officials at Washington yesterday. The United States was one of the first to recognize the provisional Government as such by instructing its diplomatic representative in Portugal to carry on any necessary business with the responsible authorities.

SOMETIMES

Sometime when all life's lessons have been learned,
And sun and stars forevermore have set,
The things which our weak judgments here have spurned,
The things o'er which we grieved with lashes wet,
Will flash before us out of life's dark night,
As stars shine most in deeper tints of blue,
And we shall see how all God's plans were right,
And how what seemed reproof was love most true.

And we shall see how, while we frown and sigh,
God's plans go on as best for you and me:
How, when we called He heeded not our cry,
Because His wisdom to the end could see,
And e'en as prudent parents disallow
Too much of sweets to craving babyhood,
So God, perhaps, is keeping from us now
Life's sweetest things because it seemeth good.

And if, sometimes, commingled with life's wine
We find the wormwood, and rebel and shrink,
Be sure a wiser hand than yours or mine
Pours out this portion for our lips to drink;
And if some friend we love is lying low,
Where human kisses cannot reach his face,
O, do not blame the loving Father so,
But wear your sorrow with obedient grace.

And you shall shortly know that lengthened breath
Is not the sweetest gift that God sends His friend,
And that sometimes the sabbal pall of death
Conceals the fairest boon His love can send.
If we could push ajar the gates of life
And stand within, and all God's working see,
And for each mystery could find a key,
We could interpret all this doubt and strife.

But not today! Then be content, poor heart,
God's plans, like lilies pure and white unfold.
We must not tear the close-shut leaves apart,
Time will reveal the calyxes of gold;
And if through patient toil we reach the land
Where tired feet with sandals loose may rest,
When we shall clearly know and understand,
I think that we shall say: "God knew the best."

MAY SELL WEST KY. COAL LANDS

Future of North American Co.'s Holding Soon to be Determined.

St. Louis, Oct. 25.—The North American Company may dispose of the West Kentucky Coal Co. If the corporation decides to retain the property, however, a large appropriation will be authorized to develop the mines and increase the output. The future of holdings will be determined by President James Campbell and members of the board, who will inspect the mines and lands Thursday.

Mr. Campbell, accompanied by John I. Beggs and the St. Louis directors, will depart tomorrow for Sturgis, Ky., where they will meet the New York members of the board. The Eastern directors are now enroute to the coal fields. Mr. Campbell hopes that the entire board will be present.

The West Kentucky Coal Co., is capitalized at $3,000,000, and all the stock is owned by the North American Company. The coal fields embrace approximately 26,000 acres in Crittenden, Union and Webster counties, near Sturgis. The properties are estimated to contain about 200,000,000 tons of merchantable coal.

THERE IS A REASON

Why it pays to advertise in the SEMI-WEEKLY BEE:

It reaches a large number of wage earners who take no other paper.

It has an almost exclusive circulation in a community where $50,000.00 in money is paid out each month.

It is read by hundreds of people who buy what they want and who have money to pay for what they buy.

The only way to get your advertisement before the people of Earlington, Morgans Gap, St. Charles and immediate vicinity is through the medium of the Earlington Bee. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

"Nancy" to be Played Here November 9.

Daisy Cameron's vaudeville engagements over the Wm. Morris circuit were such a success that that gentleman has made a tremendous offer for this little artist to return to them, but the success of her new comedy "Nancy" has been such that she will undoubtedly be seen in this clever play for at least another year.

During the action of the play Miss Cameron will present her great character songs which won such favor on the metropolitan vaudeville stage, including the "Daisy Marlucht," "Help, Whose Baby Girl are You," "If the Wind Had Only Blown the Other Way," "I Wonder if That Funny Little Boy Loves Me," "If Every Girl was a Girl Like You," "Adam and Eve," "How She Gets Away with It Is More Than I Can See," "Modern Love," "Doctor Cure My Pain," and "Little Dollie Dimples." All of these records can be heard on the Edison Phonograph and records are for sale at all supply houses.

Miss Cameron and her delightful comedy "Nancy" will be at the Temple Theatre for one night, November 8.

Earlington Physicians Contemplate Raising Price of Visit.

At a meeting recently held by the Earlington Physicians the matter of raising the price of a professional visit from $1.00 to $1.50 was discussed and while no definite action has been taken in regard to the matter it is more than likely that the price will be raised to $1.50 in the near future.

Notice From Dr. Davis.

In view of the report being circulated and which I understand will appear in this issue, that the doctors of Earlington will likely in the near future raise the fee for medical services, I desire to emphatically deny that I am a party to any such agreement and that I have any intention of raising the fee. I also desire to say that no Physician has any authority to connect my name with any such agreement and same was done without my consent.

Playwright of Great Ability.

Our people will be happy to learn that little Daisy Cameron, with all her new character songs and a most charming play will return to us for a night, November 9, at the Temple Theatre.

Miss Cameron has never appeared in anything but attractions of the very highest order and the trade mark alone is sufficient to warrant complete assurance of the merits of her offering as being strictly first class. Mr. C. H. Kerr, who presents this offering is not only a playwright of great ability, but a reliable theatrical manager in every sense of the word and the former attraction he has sent to us have been such that we feel the highest confidence in anything he may place his name upon.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Earlington Citizens Show the Certain Way Out.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the danger of diabetes of any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what an Earlington citizen says: Mrs. H. C. Smith, of Earlington, Ky., says: "I was afflicted with kidney trouble for years. I had severe pains in the small of my back and whenever I stopped or lifted, the attacks were particularly acute. My back ached at night and when I arose in the morning I was very lame. I became tired easily, felt languid and was frequently troubled by headaches and spells of dizziness. I knew that my kidneys were disordered, as the secretions from these organs were unnatural. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply and received relief from the time I began using them. The contents of two boxes of this remedy cured me. I shall recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

THE SEASON FOR COLDS IS HERE

It behooves everybody to be prepared for fighting colds from now right through the Fall and Winter. Owing to cool evenings and probably sudden changes in the weather, colds are as liable to attack now as later. They are just as dangerous now as in cold weather and are just as liable to develop into pneumonia. Nix the cold at the start. For that purpose on the side of the house where winter blasts strike hardest always has a lower temperature than the rest of the house. There are times when it is necessary to raise the temperature quickly or to keep the temperature up for a long period. That can't be done by the regular method of heating without great trouble and overheating the rest of the house. The only reliable method of heating such a room alone by other means is to use a which can be kept at full or low heat for a short or long time. Four quarts of oil will give a glowing heat for nine hours, without smoke or smell.

That Cold Room

An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. Filler-cap does not screw on; but is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached by a chain and cannot get lost.

An automatic-locking flame spreader prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that it can be cleaned in an instant.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be unsewed in an instant for reworking. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental. Has a cool handle.

AD-TALK

What think you of a salesman who reported for duty one day, lay off for two, worked a half day, went off for a week and so on without any regularity? Surely you would not expect good service from such a man. And yet some merchants hold advertising, which is simply a "salesman," up to great results when it is allowed to "work" very irregularly.

The fact that advertising costs money is proof of its value. Things without cost are usually worth only their price.
